California Resource Recovery Association

July 29, 2010

Dear Ms. Heidi Sanborn,

On behalf of the California Resource Recovery Association, it is my absolute pleasure to let you know that you have been chosen by the CRRA Board of Directors to receive our 2010 Rick Best Environmental Advocacy Award. This award honors lifetime environmental stewardship achievements. In Rick Best's memory, this award recognizes those who effectively advocate for our Earth's natural systems.

Awards will be presented Tuesday, August 10th from 4:30 – 6:30 pm during the 34th annual CRRA Statewide Conference & Tradeshow in Sacramento, California. The awards ceremony will be held at the Sacramento Convention Center in rooms 202-203. A ticket to the awards program is included with a full conference registration. As an award winner, CRRA does provide you with one complimentary ticket to attend the awards program. You are most certainly welcome to have additional people join in your celebration by purchasing additional tickets in advance for $40.00. The price for this event includes light appetizers, one complimentary drink ticket and the awards presentation.

For your convenience, following is the link to the CRRA website provides further conference information: <http://crra.com/>

In planning for our awards program, if you could let me know by email (julie@crra.com) on or before Tuesday, August 3rd, if you will be attending and receiving the award - I would greatly appreciate it. If you have any additional questions about the conference or awards program please feel free to let me know.

Again, congratulations on being chosen as a California Resource Recovery Association Award winner for 2010!

Sincerely,

J. Muir

Julie Muir
CRRA President
